Release Summary

This release includes only the statutory payroll changes for the 2025-26 tax year end.

Changes:

- P60 layout has been updated to include
 - all legislative requirements for the 2025/26 tax year
 - Statutory Neonatal Care Pay (SNCP) payments
- software can be kept for purpose of historical reporting
- no companies can be created from 06/04/2026 onwards
- no use can be made of the Copy Company function (with the exception of receivership, which will continue to operate normally)
- no companies can be rolled forwards into the 2026/27 tax year

Please note: You will need to transition to an alternative payroll software product to continue processing payroll for the 2026/27 tax year. The Capital Gold Payroll application may remain installed on your PC for historical reference and access to past data. The last tested platform was Windows 11 25H2 and we can give no assurance that future versions will operate as expected.

You must ensure that you retain appropriate backups of your data, so that you can restore, and view historical information if required.

No further support will be provided for this product. If you require information on alternative Pegasus Payroll products please visit <https://www.pegasus.co.uk/partners> to find you nearest Pegasus Partner.
