

Pegasus XRL for SE - Installation and Implementation steps

Prerequisites	Domain group	Existing installations	XRL & DataLinks	Users / user profiles	Serialising / allocating users	Mapping users / security	Macro security
In this stage, check the necessary prerequisites.	In this stage, you need to create a Windows domain group and add users to the group, plus allocate reporting roles to Opera 3 SQL SE users	In this stage, you need to remove any existing installation of Pegasus XRL.	In this stage, you install Pegasus XRL and configure the Pegasus XRL database.	In this stage, you create users and user profiles for Pegasus XRL.	In this stage, you must serialise Pegasus XRL to activate the product and allocate Opera 3 SQL SE users to use Pegasus XRL.	In this stage, it is necessary to map existing users to XRL User Profiles.	In this stage, you need to modify Microsoft Excel's security level and settings
See Stage 1: Checking the hardware and software prerequisites	See Stage 2: Creating a Windows domain group and allocating users and reporting roles	See Stage 3: Removing the existing Pegasus XRL installation	See Stage 4: Installing Pegasus XRL and configuring the DataLinks	See Stage 5: Creating users and user profiles	See Stage 6: Serialising Pegasus XRL and allocating users	See Stage 7: Mapping users and setting security	See Stage 8: Setting macro security and logging on